An interactive panel discussion on the resolution of disputes arising under contracts between Indian and Australian companies.

This is an opportunity for Business Leaders, Corporate Council, International ADR Practitioners and Academics to tap into both local and international expertise in an area of increasing concern to commerce.

Forum discussion will include:

- how to manage and protect against the risks of disputes and their resolution
- how to draft dispute resolution clauses
- what ADR options are available - particularly international arbitration and the courts in Australia and India

Forum Panel

- Professor Paramjit S. Jaswal, Vice Chancellor, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab
- Major Guneet Chaudary, Jurisconsultus, Delhi and Chandigarh
- John Cox, Solicitor and President, Australian Indian Business Council [NSW Chapter]
- Jo Delaney, Special Counsel, Baker & McKenzie, Sydney
- Khory McCormick, Partner, Minter Ellison, Brisbane

When: 12 November 2014
5.15 – 7.15pm
[incl. drinks and networking]

Where: Australian International Disputes Centre,
Level 16, 1 Castlereagh St, Sydney 2000
